

FANNY SÖDERLUND

Results-focused software developer who is familiar with a wide range of programming utilities and languages. Knowledgeable of backend and frontend development requirements. Well-versed in objective-oriented programming. Efficient work style and goal oriented. Complex problem-solver with analytical and driven mindset. Thrives from challenges. Dedicated to achieving demanding development objectives according to tight schedules while producing clean and structured code. Successful at managing multiple priorities with a positive attitude.

Bachelor of Science: Software Development

Högskolan Kristianstad, 2019–2022

High School Diploma

Söderport, Kristianstad 2012–2015

WORK HISTORY

Teacher Assistant

Högskolan Kristianstad, Kristianstad, 2021

- For the course database technique and sustainable programming
- Oversaw and helped groups of students at school and off-site locations
- Held help sessions and guided students through the course material and branch standards

Project Member

Region Skåne, Kristianstad, 2018–2019

- An EU financed exhibition about fiber and its expansion in Skåne
- Assisted visitors, answered questions and held guided tours around the showcases
- Offered technical support and troubleshoot issues to enhance project productivity
- Collaborated with local companies and organizations

Technical Advisor

WebHelp, Göteborg, 2018

- Provided high-level technical support by resolving inquiries for customers and end-users in Sweden and UK
- Recorded and maintained relevant notes for each client and work order
- Explained technical information in clear terms for non-technical users

Waitress, Bartender and Chef

Leonardo Tapas & Lounge, Ölstugan Tullen, Göteborg, 2015–2018

- Performed opening and closing duties, printing sales reports, setting up for incoming shifts, preparing cash drawers and taking inventory
- Recruited and trained new bartenders and waiters/waitresses